

The Micah Project

March

Album

Spring Break
Work Day
2015!

Today is the official start of spring break in Honduras, which always coincides with Holy Week, and we celebrated by-- well-- having the boys do a work day! We had several projects to do: finishing the playground area of the Villa Linda Miller school, building a small workshop for our Wilmer, and improving the walking path around the cabins. All in all, a good day's work!

CPC Mission Trip

We are always excited to receive this team from Michael's home church in St. Louis, Missouri! They are an encouragement to our staff and boys, and we are so blessed that they are a part of the Micah family!

Caribbean Trip!

Since Holy Week is spring break here in Honduras, we have taken the boys on a road trip to the Caribbean coastal town of Tela. One of our youngest boys, Jhon, is from the Garifuna culture that dots the Caribbean coast of Honduras, and we spent the afternoon today in the town of San Juan. It was SO special to be able to spend the afternoon with Jhon's family on their ancestral lands. You should definitely read more about the amazing Garifuna people!

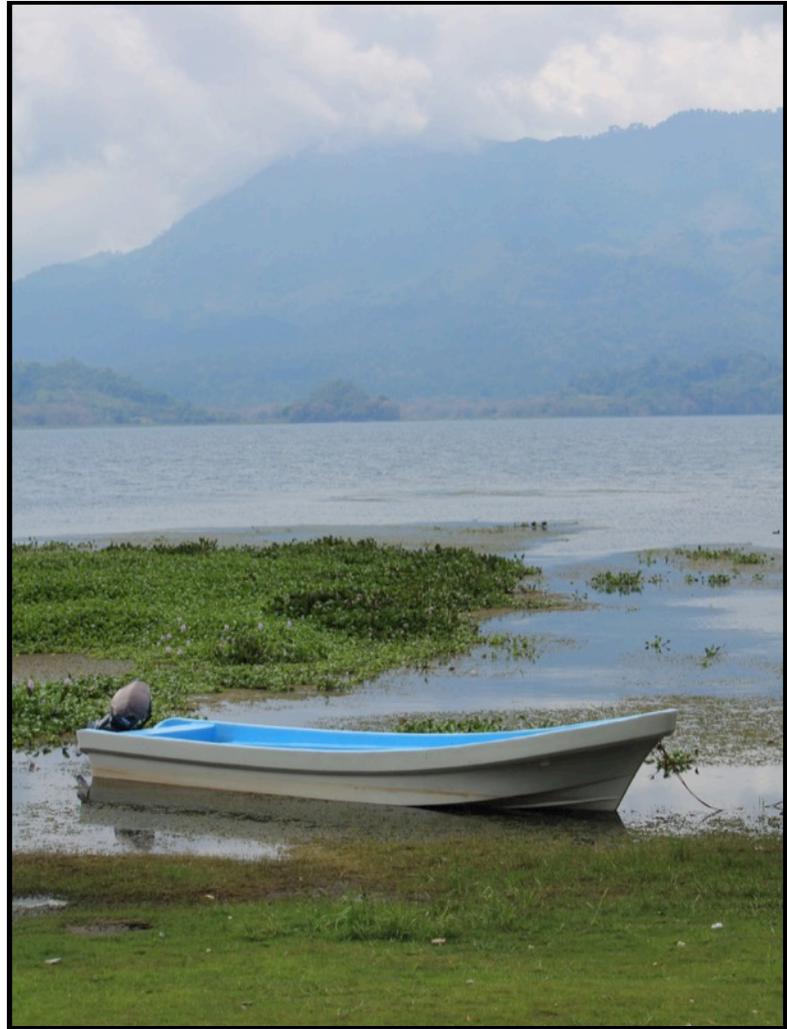

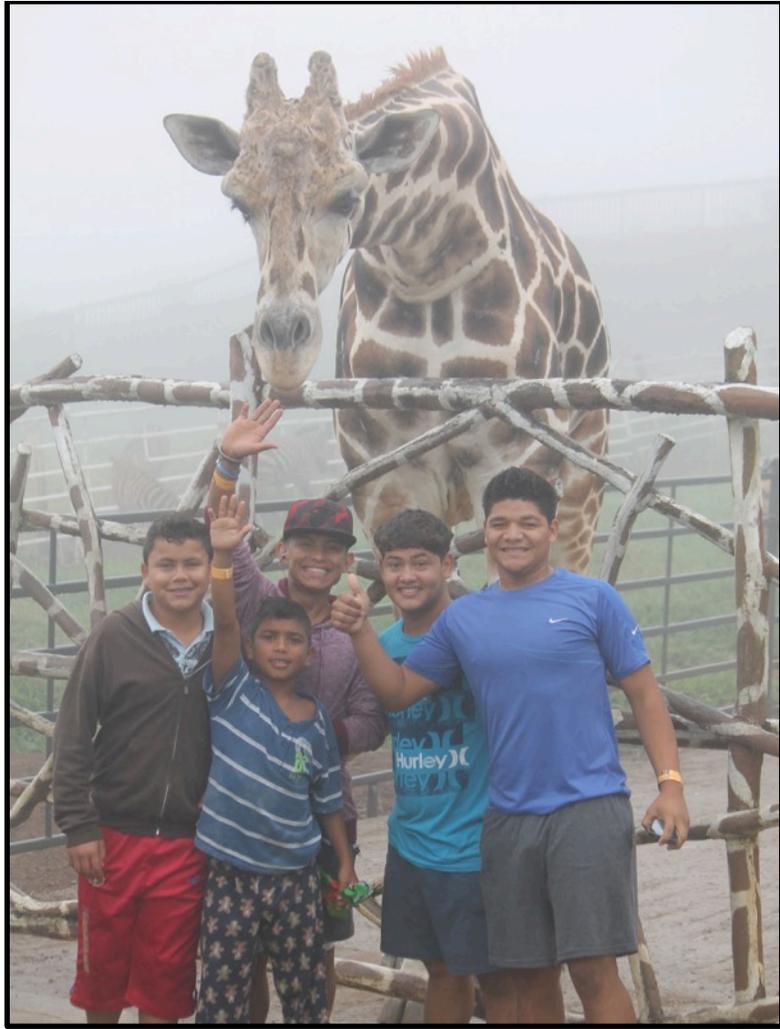

Above: Caitlin and Leah spend some time with one of Jhon's Cousins.

Right: Jhon has huge smiles as he has a meal with his family

Bottom left: The boys pose on the beach in San Juan

Bottom right: Michael hangs out on the beach with Jose Luis and Julio

On the way to the north coast we had lunch at the Lago de Yojoa, and then spent the first night at a zoo and park called Joya Grande. They have an amazing variety of animals and activities, as you can see from the giraffe named "Big Boy" in the photo!

